

"Lowe's reputation is a priceless asset which has been earned through years of our associates' hard work, and through our dedication to being a responsible company and a good corporate citizen. We are proud of our reputation, and believe that every associate, officer and director shares Lowe's commitment to doing the right thing."

- Marvin R. Ellison, Chairman, President and CEO of Lowe's

Lowe's Vendor Code of Conduct

Lowe's Vendor Code of Conduct ("VCC") applies to all vendors who provide goods and services to Lowe's Companies, Inc., or to any of its subsidiaries and affiliates ("Lowe's").

As a vendor supplying to Lowe's, you should be committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct when interacting with anyone representing Lowe's, whether an employee or a third-party service provider.

To maintain an ethical supply chain, Vendors are required to comply with the requirements set forth in the VCC, including but not limited to those related to gifts and benefits, anti-corruption, prohibition of forced labor and child labor, health and safety of workplace, and environmental standards.
